

On September 20th, 1926. As per instructions proceeded to Pfeiffer's office, arrived there at 9:30 A.M., and assigned to look up the record of Jane Gibson Alias, Anna King, Mary Rae, Mary Ray, Anna Rae, Anna Ray, Mary Kesselring, Jane Kesselring, Mary Eisleitner and Mary or Jane Leitner. Also to investigate and if necessary to shadow the Rev. Paul F.B. Hamborzsky, who is supposed to conduct the Old Faith Mission at 304 East 79th Street, New York City and who resides at 118 Goodrich Street, Astoria, L.I. He is employed in the real estate office of Louis Lustig of 245 East 80th Street, New York City. I was also instructed to find out whether Mr. Simpson has an office on Broadway. The following is the result of my investigation for the day:-

I find that Alexander Simpson has an office at 200 Broadway, telephone number is Cortlandt 2970, and he occupies a room on the second floor, room 204. His office associates are Claude J. Carting Company and that the president of the said company is a Mr. Dennis O'Connor of 7419 Sixth Avenue Brooklyn, N.Y.

I then proceeded to 304 East 79th Street for the purpose of securing some information concerning Hamborzsky. I find that the Mission is not at that address, but after some search I located the said church at 204 East 79th St., near the corner of 3rd Avenue. On first hand information I am informed that this Mission is run by private individuals, that they generally hold meetings at night time in the street, and it is a sort of open door proposition to all comers. I am informed that refreshments are served there and at different times the Salvation Army seems to help out in front of the place. I have spoken to a friend of mine who feels that within the next 48 hours he will be able to get some valuable information concerning Hamborzsky.

From there I proceeded to 245 East 80th Street which is located near the corner of 2nd Avenue on the north side of the street. There I find that the
